

1

- The motive is to provide information about the route, cancellation of tickets, departure time, arrival time, etc.
- Store information related to various rail transactions.
- Keep track of all the passengers.
- Maintain records of passengers booking and travelling in various trains.
- Overall goal is to ease the tedious task of railway activity.

2

- The purpose of Multimedia Content Protection System is to protect our videos and large text documents.
- No one else other than the owner would be able to copy and claim it as their own work.
- Every computing will be done on cloud.
- The model will not only detect pirated content but also the extent of piracy.

Ans

3

- It is a software used to streamline the delivery process from beginning to end.
- Agents can automate dispatch operations, pick-up processes and also receive optimized routes to reach customer fast.
- Real time tracking will allow managers to get location of vehicles.
- View and control all delivery operations in one place.
- The software can dispatch, and schedule deliveries based on resource availability.